

UU MATTERS

The Mt. Vernon Unitarian Universalist Fellowship
An Emerging UUA Congregation

June 2006
No. 4 Vol. 1

Congratulations to Our Founding Mt. Vernon UU Fellowship Members and First Board of Trustees!

May 21 marked our First Annual Congregational Meeting and Board of Trustees Election

After adopting our bylaws on April 23, our fellowship began taking membership forms in preparation for its first Annual meeting and election. Fifteen people made the choice to become founding members of the Mt. Vernon Unitarian Universalist Fellowship. On May 21, our members unanimously elected our first Board of Trustees. Those elected were as follows:

- ⚙ Kelly Taylor, Secretary
- ⚙ Paul Oakley, Treasurer
- ⚙ Glenda Ruth Eubanks, Cochair
- ⚙ Randall Farrar, Cochair
- ⚙ Shannon Green, Cochair

The adoption of the bylaws, opening of membership, and election of a board of trustees are of monumental importance to our fellowship's growth and success. These actions affirm our commitment to supporting the seven principles and purposes of the UUA, our intention of becoming a member congregation of the UUA, and our efforts to become self-governing and self-supporting as a congregation.

The election of the board helps to ensure the continued success of our fellowship and commits its trustees to the following, taken from our bylaws:

- Furthering activities in support of the fellowship's purpose, vision, and mission.
- Ensuring economic stability.
- Providing a safe and attractive facility in which to worship,

- meet, and study.
- Providing religious education to all ages.
- Promoting community social action.
- Exercising leadership for continued quality and improvement.

Good luck to all of our elected Board Members in living up to these ideals and furthering the cause of Unitarian Universalism in Southern Illinois!
