Mt. Vernon UU Fellowship services are held each Sunday at 10:00 a.m.

July 5th: We are still in need of a volunteer to lead this service. If no one is able to coordinate the service, it will be held as an Open Reading service with no specified leader, followed by coffee hour as usual. If you have a reading or music to share, please plan on bringing it just in case.

July 12th: Open Reading Service. Glenda Eubanks will coordinate this service. Please bring short readings, music, or other thoughts to share.

July 19th: Special Guest: Zola Van, Musician. Angela Czapiewski will coordinate this service with special guest musician Zola Van. Zola Van is a concert Pianist and Composer from Southern Illinois who has a special attachment to the natural areas of Southern Illinois. She will perform several of her original pieces on this morning, with Angela sharing short readings throughout the service.

July 26th: We are still in need of a volunteer to lead this service.

August 2nd: Reflections from the UUA's 2009 General Assembly.

Fellowship member Paul Oakley recently attended the annual General Assembly (GA) of the Unitarian Universalist Association in Salt Lake City, Utah. Please join him as he share reflections on, and thoughts about, his experiences at GA. Also, see a brief note from Paul on this subject further into the newsletter!

August 9th: Becoming a Welcoming Congregation. The Taskforce on LGBT Concerns will lead this service together as a part of our Fellowship's efforts at becoming a Welcoming Congregation.

August 16th: We are still in need of a volunteer to lead this service. The third Sunday of each month is typically reserved for an Open Reading service, but any person who volunteers to lead or coordinate the service has the option to change this if they so desire.

August 23rd: Creation Myths, Intergenerational Service. Shannon Green will lead this service for all ages on the topic of Creation. Several stories and myths from a variety of religious and cultural perspectives will be shared with an interactive style. Shannon will also explore the subject of people as creators during the service. Shannon will follow this service with additional exploration of the topic of Creation in an additional service in September.

August 30th: We are still in need of a volunteer to lead this service.

All Sunday services are followed by a social hour with coffee and other refreshments in the fellowship basement immediately after the service.

Services at Mt. Vernon UU Fellowship are led and organized by members and friends of our fellowship. If you would like to volunteer to lead and/or organize a service, please use the sign up sheet on the back table of the sanctuary.

A Note from Fellowship Member Paul Oakley:

My Fellow MVUUF People:

As many of you know, I have just spent the better part of a week in Salt Lake City, Utah, at the General Assembly (GA) of the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations (UUA). I had a great time and learned a lot.

Maybe fewer of you know that, in accordance with the congregation's policy that MVUUF will pay the registration fee for members to attend GA or similar UU district or regional meetings, the Board of Trustees authorized reimbursing me the cost of my registration fee. I am very grateful for this help.

Therefore, to a somewhat greater degree than I otherwise might hold, I owe you all some summary thoughts on my experience. I plan partly to fulfill that at the service I will be leading on August 2. But, as a few of you know already, I blogged about my experience while I was there. You can access my GA blog entries at the following web address:

<http://innerlight-radiantlife.blogspot.com/search/label/GA>

The blog entries are a combination of observation, evaluation, and chronicle of my experience, both mundane and sublime. They definitely reflect my opinion on several things that not all of you would agree with. And that's fine. If you have any questions about my experience of GA, please ask me about it.

Blessings,
Paul
