An Emerging UUA Congregation

September 2009
Vol. 4 No. 5

Mt. Vernon UU Fellowship services are held each Sunday at 10:00 a.m.

September 6th: *Drumming. Debbie White and Angela Czapiewski will lead a service on drumming with reflections on the meaning of drumming in people's lives. During the service there will be opportunities for the congregation to participate in drumming or to sit back and enjoy the meditative rhythm drumming offers. You may bring a percussion instrument to the service or use one that will be provided for you. The fellowship also holds a monthly drum circle on the first Friday of each month; in September, the drum circle will be held on September 4th.

September 13th: *Antarctica. Vennie Anderson of the Carbondale Unitarian Fellowship will share reflections from her voyage to Antarctica at this service.

September 20th: *What "Worship" Means to Me. Rev. Bill Sasso, Minister of the Carbondale Unitarian Fellowship, will join us for this service and deliver this message on worship. Rev. Sasso says of this service, "In many faith traditions, 'worship' has a specific and generally accepted meaning. In Unitarian Universalism, we often agree to disagree, and the meaning of 'worship' might be one of our most 'disagreeable' topics. While we hold different opinions as individuals, we somehow gather each Sunday, and as we do, something happens." Join Rev. Sasso as he reflects on "What can worship be?" and "How does it happen?" within UUism. Following the service, our fellowship will host a potluck lunch before Rev. Sasso continues by leading a Worship Leaders Workshop for anyone interested in learning more about putting together a Sunday Morning Service.

September 27th: On One Foot. The Jewish High Holy Days begin with Rosh Hashanah (Jewish New Year) and run through Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement) which begins at sundown on September 27. This year Rosh Hashanah begins at sundown on September 18; Yom Kippur begins at sundown on September 27. The primary theme of Yom Kippur is repentance. Paul Oakley will lead our Sunday morning service on the 27th. The service will recognize Yom Kippur with a sermon titled "On One Foot," written by Rabbi Edward Feinstein (Conservative) and presented to his synagogue Valley Beth Shalom in Encino (CA) on Yom Kippur 1996. The philosopher Isaiah Berlin quipped that for every difficult, complex problem, in politics, in life, in thought, there is always a simple answer. Which is always wrong - and not just wrong, but deadly. Rabbi Feinstein's message gives us a complex yet accessible entry into the meaning of Yom Kippur.

All Sunday services are followed by a social hour with coffee and other refreshments in the fellowship basement immediately after the service.

Services at Mt. Vernon UU Fellowship are led and organized by members and friends of our fellowship. If you would like to volunteer to lead and/or organize a service, please use the sign up sheet on the back table of the sanctuary.

I think that one of our most important tasks is to convince others that there's nothing to fear in difference; that difference, in fact, is one of the healthiest and most invigorating of human characteristics without which life would become meaningless. Here lies the power of the liberal way: not in making the whole world Unitarian Universalist, but in helping ourselves and others to see some of the possibilities inherent in viewpoints other than one's own; in encouraging the free interchange of ideas; in welcoming fresh approaches to the problems of life; in urging the fullest, most vigorous use of critical self-examination. ~ Adlai Stevenson
