To see a hillside white with dogwood bloom is to know a particular ecstasy of beauty, but to walk the gray Winter woods and find the buds which will resurrect that beauty in another May is to partake of continuity.

The UUSC Link

The UUSC is an independent human rights organization, supported through the volunteer efforts and financial gifts of its members and supporters, and linked to UU congregations through local representatives. The four focus areas of its work include: *Rights in Humanitarian Crises; Civil Liberties; Economic Justice; and Environmental Justice.

We wrapped up our second annual Guest at Your Table program at the Fire Ceremony on December 30, 2012. I am delighted to report that the response this year surpassed that of last! We begin this year with four UUSC members, a total contribution to UUSC of $337.83, and more households contributing than last year. Again this year, one household contribution was sufficient to be matched by a gift from the UU congregation at Shelter Rock in Manhasset, N.Y. To give you an idea what our gift from MVUUF represents: $75 will support one youth at-risk for labor exploitation and trafficking near the Uganda/Kenya border; $100 provides one month of art supplies for 10 children in an art-therapy program in Haiti; $180 supplies materials for five tire gardens in Haiti. See How UUSC Invests your Guest at Your Table Donation on the bulletin board, or on line. Thanks to each of you for your generosity!

In March, we will observe Justice Sunday. The theme this year is 'Justice is Choosing Compassionate Consumption.' In particular, Justice Sunday focuses on seeking better conditions for restaurant workers. In preparation, UUSC is suggesting that supporters purchase a new book, Behind the Kitchen Door, in the critical first two weeks of its release in February, in an effort to put this document on the best seller list and garner national attention for the effort to improve conditions for restaurant workers.

To learn more about UUSC, take a look at the Into Action bulletin board, visit the UUSC website at www.uusc.org or on Facebook, attend a meeting of the Social Justice Interest Group each second Sunday after social hour, and watch this space at UUMatters.

UUSC Local Representative

There is a privacy about it which no other season gives you. . . In spring, summer and fall people sort of have an open season on each other; only in the winter, in the country, can you have longer, quiet stretches when you can savor belonging to yourself.

Souper Bowl Recipe Collection

Debbie Czarnopys-White is collecting easy recipes to share with Angels on Assignment and our congregation. Using SouperBowl Sunday as a catalyst, please send recipes to Debbie bdcw@frontiernet.net

Lap Quilt and Blanket Project

Quilt-making is a continuing service project of the Social Justice Interest Group throughout the year. Seeking donations of:

- quilt batting (full size 81x96" - we cut it down to use)
- quilt backing (white material)
- funds for either of these or postage
- time to help assemble or sew on the lap quilts
- new small blankets/covers (fleece, etc.)

Blankets and quilts are sent to Maria Lovato who lives with her husband on the Pueblo de Cochiti reservation, to help 300 people there. See photos of eight completed quilts on back

African International Foundation

Member Shannon Green – who led a service in September 2012 at MVUUF about what she learned in Africa, "Kenya – Coming Back Changed" – sends this information about a new program for which she invites our interest and support:

"2012 ...brought me the opportunity to travel to Kenya as part of my studies. Since my return, I have been working with Dr. Peter Gitau (Dean of Students for SIU, the faculty who sponsors the SIU trip to Kenya), and others to establish a non profit organization that will continue to support educational development in Kenya. Together, we have created the African International Foundation for Educational Excellence. I wanted to share this information with you because it is important to me, and so are you. I am attaching information about our current efforts, and you can also visit our website: africaninternationalfoundation.org"

More information is posted on the bulletin board at the back of the fellowship hall.

Newspaper Announcement Submission Guidelines

Submissions for the Friday "church news" sections of both the Sentinel and the Register-News are sent on the Tuesday morning prior to the service or event. If you are leading a service, or planning a Fellowship event, please email your information to Gail at: vegaddict1 (at) aol.com by (at the very latest) 8 p.m., on the prior Monday. It need not be complicated--a few sentences would be fine. (Also, please let Gail know if you do not wish for your name to be included in the press release.) Many new attendees have told us that they found MVUUF through these articles in the newspaper, so this is an important way to let people know what is happening.

Newsletter Submission Guidelines

Please email submissions for UU Matters to marji.gibbs(at)gmail.com. Submissions for the January edition are due by Friday, February 22.

If you are leading a service or speaking in a service, please submit the title, date, and synopsis of your service/sermon. If you are coordinating a special meeting or event that is open to the public, please submit the date and description of the event.

UU Matters is an opportunity for you to share your personal work relating to Unitarian Universalism, to the MVUUF congregation, or to liberal religious thought in general. Please consider sharing your photography, poems, short stories, "deep thoughts," favorite quotes, etc.

Considering MVUUF membership? Please ask a Board of Trustees member for a prospective member folder, or a membership form.

Treasury Matters

Financial contributions may be made in the round bowl on the back table in the Fellowship Hall. If you would like to mail a contribution, please mail to: MVUUF, 1600 Isabella, Mt. Vernon, IL, 62864. If you would like your offering to be used for a specific purpose, please clearly mark that purpose on the memo line on your check or on the envelope in which you place your offering.
