The UUSC Link

The UUSC is an independent human rights organization, supported through the volunteer efforts and financial gifts of its members and supporters, and linked to UU congregations through local representatives. The four focus areas of its work include: *Rights in Humanitarian Crises; Civil Liberties; Economic Justice; and Environmental Justice.

Wednesday, July 24, was the national day of action to raise the minimum wage. It marks four years since workers making the federal minimum wage last received a raise -- to $7.25 per hour.

Unitarian Universalist Association President Peter Morales and UUSC President Bill Schulz issued a statement on July 18 on raising the minimum wage -- see portions of their message below.

We've been told we're in the middle of an economic recovery. But as we approach July 24, the national day of action to raise the minimum wage, we face the reality that workers who make minimum wage are not recovering -- they're barely putting food on the table. . . This is an outrage that our moral values insist be remedied. And there is a simple common-sense solution: we must raise the federal minimum wage to a living wage. . . Because the problem of income equality is so central to our moral commitments, we have together written and signed a statement in support of raising the minimum wage. Now we are asking people throughout the country to join us.

Sign our statement today and urge that workers be paid fairly:

The U.S. Congress is currently considering the Fair Minimum Wage Act of 2013... We ardently support this legislation, but it's just a starting point, and we have a long road to travel. We see this as much more than a political issue -- it is a moral imperative. We must be true to the values that we hold dear.
