Holiday Display

Many thanks to Paul Oakley for his generous contribution of articles for display related to various faiths. From Islamic traditions he shared: Qur'an, Islamic prayer beads, ceramic tile showing the Qaba' in Mecca, Islamic calligraphic embroidery; from Sikh: the small poster print of Sikh Guru Gobind Singh; and from Judaic traditions for Chanukah: several dreidels. These are currently on display at the back of the fellowship hall, and are a gift from him to the fellowship for display in future years.

Condolences

Condolences to Larry Sidwell on the passing of his father in late December.

Building Your Own Theology

The Programing committee is checking for interest in the Building Your Own Theology program, a ten-week discovery group, possibly for this spring. Some of our Fellowship have been through the course, early in the life of our fellowship. According to the introduction, the course can be condensed or expanded as needed. If interested let Glenda, Donna, or Roberta know.

Jan 4 to return Guest at Your Table contributions

Take home a colorful box or envelope and booklet of stories, those of our 'guests' this year. Contribute at mealtime—the cost of a meal, or a cup of coffee— over four to six weeks. Return the Guest at Your Table box or envelope by the first Sunday of January.

Advancing human rights is the work of many joining hands

The UUSC Link

The Unitarian Universalist Service Committee is an independent human rights organization, supported through the volunteer efforts and financial gifts of its members and supporters, and linked to UU congregations through local representatives. The four focus areas of its work include: Rights in Humanitarian Crises; Civil Liberties; Economic Justice; and Environmental Justice.

As we wrap up our fundraising for UUSC through the Guest at Your Table program, here is an update on two other UUSC fundraising efforts.

UUSC is thrilled to have exceeded the goal for our 100 Gardens project launched last April for Justice Sunday 2014. We needed to raise $25,000 for that initiative, and you and our supporters raised over $46,000 — enough to fully fund container gardens for 100 urban families in Haiti and help fund the launch of a new urban garden center in Port-au-Prince. The new center will offer training sessions, house a model garden, and provide storage for supplies.

UUSC is delighted to announce that we have met our goal for the Ebola Epidemic Relief Fund! Over $117,200 has been raised to date, which exceeds our goal of $100,000! UUSC has identified and is working with two key grassroots partner organizations in two locations:

Liberia: Last Mile Health Last Mile Health (LMH) trains health-care workers in remote Liberian villages in order to address medical concerns and illnesses in the community. They have created a network of frontline health workers who are essentially a system of trained “neighbors” whom community members know and trust. Instead of relying solely on doctors and hospitals located far away, LMH is currently training existing members in villages to advance the right to health on a daily basis.

Sierra Leone: Wellbody Alliance Wellbody Alliance implements a proactive Ebola response in the remote district they have served for the past eight years: Kono, Sierra Leone. They aim not only to halt the spread of the virus but also to strengthen Kono’s health systems to prevent such future crises altogether. The project will continue the expansion of a corps of community health workers to provide house-to-house screenings, contact tracing, and compassionate preventive education. Wellbody Alliance will also implement the first ambulance system in the district to provide safe, expedited transport of Ebola patients from even the most decentralized locations. An Ebola care unit at Wellbody’s clinical location will be opened in Kono to provide dignified, high-quality care. The final goal of the project will be to maintain and strengthen operations at Wellbody Clinic, which is now the only primary health-care facility open in the district and one of the only ones in the country that remains fully operational amidst the outbreak.

You can make a difference! Please consider making a generous gift to UUSC.

To learn more about UUSC, take a look at the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall, visit the UUSC website at www.uusc.org or on Facebook, attend a meeting of the Social Justice Interest Group each second Sunday after social hour, and watch this space at UUMatters.
