Activities of the Social Justice Interest Group have flowed into programming, including special services and Open Minds. The Publication Committee reports 670 books are available in the Library, maintained neatly thanks to Beth Brennan. New membership packets are underway.

Plans are progressing to purchase a plaque for memorials to go next to the Randy Farrar memorial plaque. Thanks go to Paul Eatherton for mowing and grounds-care. ## Tenth Anniversary of Mt Vernon UUF, Part Five

The third and final public informational meeting was held May 25, 2005, with nearly twenty people in attendance. Dr. Angela Merkert, Congregational Services Director of the UUA's Central Midwest District, spoke, and led a conversation about forming a UU congregation. It did not take long for interested parties to get busy. Vito Mastrangelo recalls that an organizational meeting was held with Rev Bill Sasso on June 1, 2005; and a Sunday meeting was held on June 19, also with Rev. Sasso. On Sunday, June 26, Vito, Glenda Eubanks, and Randy Farrar met in the parking lot and travelled to attend the Carbondale UU Fellowship service. The presiding minister was a religious scholar from SIU, Jack Hayward, who spoke on "Concerning Death: Thoughts from My Youth and My Old Age." Vito recalls that he was favorably impressed with the service, and with the new building that housed the Carbondale UU Fellowship. A nucleus of leaders for the emerging UU fellowship in Mt. Vernon was beginning to form.

Congratulations, Paul Oakley

Congratulations to Paul Oakley on his ordination to the ministry on Sunday, May 31st, 2015, and on his new position as minister at the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Waynesboro VA.

Lifeboat Alliance Donations

Donations to Lifeboat Alliance may be placed in this 'boat,' at the back of the fellowship hall, handmade by Glenda Eubanks just for this purpose.

Building Your Own Theology Begins May 31

Building Your Own Theology group will hold its first of ten weekly meetings Sunday May 31, from 11:15 – 12:45. Since May 31 is also Paul Oakley's ordination in St Louis, that week will end by 12:30, for people traveling to St. Louis.

Participants need to have a Building Your Own Theology book (Donna has several to lend) to read a chapter for each meeting. Diane Schwitz has kindly offered to facilitate on weeks that she does not have to work.

Open Minds

June Discussion on GMOs

The June 17 Open Minds topic is Genetically Modified Organisms. The Social Justice Interest Group hosts the Open Minds discussion series on the third Wednesday of each month at 7 p.m. at the fellowship building, to encourage exploration and discussion of social justice and related issues. The series is open to the public.

Advancing human rights is the work of many joining hands

The UUSC Link

The Unitarian Universalist Service Committee is an independent human rights organization, supported through the volunteer efforts and financial gifts of its members and supporters, and linked to UU congregations through local representatives. The four focus areas of its work include: *Rights in Humanitarian Crises; Civil Liberties; Economic Justice; and Environmental Justice.

On April 25, communities in Nepal, India, and Bangladesh suffered a devastating 7.8 magnitude earthquake. So far, reports reveal that more than 4,000 people have died and thousands more are injured or missing. Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (UUSC) President Bill Schulz and Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA) President Rev. Peter Morales have issued this joint statement in response to this tragedy:

“The devastating earthquake in Nepal has resulted in a growing number of victims and widespread destruction of property, including some of the world's greatest heritage sites. This tragic disaster, in a country where 25% of the population already lives at or below the national poverty line, reminds us of life's fragility and our human obligation to respond with generosity and compassion to those who suffer.

With Nepal's record of poor infrastructure, relief and recovery efforts are certain to face significant challenges. That is one reason that UUSC and the UUA are launching a special joint appeal for Nepal relief work. As is our practice with international disaster relief, UUSC will take the lead in distributing funds where they can do the most good, directing support toward people who are left out of mainstream relief efforts.

People and communities whose rights will be most at risk in the wake of the disaster will include people living in remote areas; women and children; lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people; people who do not have recognized citizenship; indigenous people; Dalits; elderly people; and people living with disabilities and HIV/AIDS. UUSC and the UUA are already establishing on-the-ground partnerships and projects to support these communities.

We are keeping the people of Nepal and the affected region in our hearts and prayers. Please be generous with your support.”

To learn more about UUSC, take a look at the Choosing to Make A Difference bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall, visit the UUSC website at www.uusc.org or on Facebook, attend a meeting of the Social Justice Interest Group each second Sunday after social hour, and watch this space at UUMatters.
