- 9 October: Roberta Price for leading this Open Readings service on International Day of Indigenous Peoples, and also the Open Readings service on October 16. Thank you to Chad Schott of Drumzrguruven for loaning the drums in the front of the Fellowship Hall for many years. They sounded out in the days when MVUUF held a drum circle, and though their visual presence is still appreciated, they are now moving to a active drum circle.

Open Minds

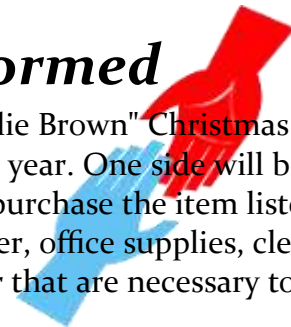

November 16, Privatizing Public Parks and Lands

The Social Justice Interest Group hosts the Open Minds discussion series on the third Wednesday of each month at 6:30 p.m. at the Fellowship building, to encourage exploration and discussion of social justice and related issues. The series is open to the public. November 16 facts and discussion is on Privatizing Public Parks and Lands. What does this mean to you or your country? Facilitator: Gail DeVilbiss.

The October topic was "Implicit Bias" presented by Mike DeVilbiss. If you have a topic to discuss, concerning social justice, economic justice, environmental justice – or just being an informed citizen – please contact Donna or Vito.

Holiday Project Transformed

The Social Justice Interest Group will set up the "Charlie Brown" Christmas tree downstairs again this year, but it will have dual purposes this year. One side will be for charity. On the other side will be tags for people to take, to purchase the item listed on the tag. These will be items for our Fellowship - ie: toilet paper, office supplies, cleaning items, and other items we can use at MVUUF during the year that are necessary to keep us going.

And Gracias.... In this Month of Gratitude

Thank you to everyone who pitched in for Fall Cleaning Day: Roberta, Nina, Gail, Mike D, Mike M, Theresa, Susan , Bonita, Greg. Thank you to David Bullock and Susan Davis for the season's mowing. Thanks to Terry Schwitz of the Building Committee for the quiet tasks he does that keep our Fellowship Hall running smoothly .

So Are We Bound Together

By Elizabeth Lerner Maclay

As drops of rain that find each other and build to become a track, a rivulet, a stream, a river, a sea, so are we drawn together; so are we fortunate to find each other; so are we bound together, on this shared passage toward an unknown ocean and eternity.

Unitarian Universalists claim no statement of doctrine. We believe there is no one right way to lead a religious or spiritual life. We value each individual's spiritual journey, and believe in reason, freedom, equality, and love. Join us as we gather in community, seeking peace and justice for all persons.
