Sunday Morning Service Schedule

(All Sunday morning services are held at 10:00 a.m. at the Fellowship building and are open to the public. If you are interested in leading a service or delivering a sermon, please use the Service Sign-up sheet at the back of the fellowship hall.)

1 February: A simple prayer led by a seminary intern at Spring Valley Presbyterian church in Columbia, S.C. - “Lord, Even as we enjoy the Super Bowl Football game, let us be mindful of those who are without a bowl of soup to eat” – in 1990 inspired a youth led movement to help hungry people around the world. Join us for this Souper Bowl of Caring service, led by the Social Justice Interest group, on the topic of food insecurity. Please bring canned/dry goods to be distributed locally. A soup potluck will follow the service – bring soup or sides to accompany soup.

8 February: Open Reading Service, a volunteer is needed for opening and closing music. Please bring readings, music, and art work to share.

15 February: Roberta Price will lead this service, “Standing on the Side of Love.”

22 February: Dave Trotter will lead this service, continuing with Buddhist topics, on “The Ten Perfections.”

Please check the MVUUF website for updates to February services.

Bring your own drum or percussion instrument, or share what is available. Come and experience the ancient tradition, dynamic pulse, and healing energy of drumming with others.
Unitarian Universalists claim no statement of doctrine. We believe there is no one right way to lead a religious or spiritual life. We value each individual’s spiritual journey, and believe in reason, freedom, equality, and love. Join us as we gather in community, seeking peace and justice for all persons.

Seven Principles of UU
Open Minds Discussion Returns

The Social Justice Interest Group hosts the Open Minds discussion series as a monthly meeting on the third Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the fellowship building, to encourage exploration and discussion of social justice and related issues. The series is open to the public.

For February, presentation and discussion is on the topic of Genetically Modified Organisms. Bring a friend.

If you are interested in presenting an Open Minds program, please talk with Donna Beaumont or Vito Mastrangelo to schedule a date. We are glad to help with logistics. We are interested in supporting informed participation in the democratic process.

Dec. Board Meeting Highlights

The Board reaffirmed the MVUUF Facebook group purpose— for the board members and committees to make announcements to its members, and to highlight local activities in which members of the Fellowship may be involved. Board members and several others were designated to approve posts that are submitted. Please join the Facebook group if you are so inclined. The piano was repaired and tuned.

New Year’s Fire Ceremony

Thank you to Gail DeVilbiss for ringing in the new year with a special Fire Ceremony, weaving together themes of 108 Bells, New Year in Japan, Prayer for ourselves, others and all being from Thich Nhat Hahn, and ‘Feeding the Raven.’
The UUSC Link

The Unitarian Universalist Service Committee is an independent human rights organization, supported through the volunteer efforts and financial gifts of its members and supporters, and linked to UU congregations through local representatives. The four focus areas of its work include: Rights in Humanitarian Crises; Civil Liberties; Economic Justice; and Environmental Justice.

Thanks to each of you who contributed to UUSC through our Guest at Your Table program. Because you chose to make a difference, Mt Vernon UUF was able to send a gift of $200 to UUSC.

$20 supports advocacy tools for the Restaurant Opportunities Centers United’s Food Movement campaign against the National Restaurant Association.

$100 provides one month of art supplies for 10 children in the art-therapy program at the Association for the Promotion of Integral Family Healthcare (APROSIFA) in Haiti.

$200 pays for the development of awareness-raising tools for the Tanzania Gender Networking Program’s project to increase citizen participation, especially by marginalized women.

You make it possible. Thank you.

To learn more about UUSC, take a look at the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall, visit the UUSC website at www.uusc.org or on Facebook, attend a meeting of the Social Justice Interest Group each second Sunday after social hour, and watch this space at UUMatters.

Building Your Own Theology

The Programing committee is checking for interest in the Building Your Own Theology program, a ten-week discovery group, possibly for this spring. Some of our Fellowship have been through the course, early in the life of our fellowship. If interested let Glenda, Donna, or Roberta know.

MVUUF Book Group

If interested in a women’s book reading group, to meet at the Fellowship or over a meal at a local eating place, please contact Debbie, 201-3753, bdcw@frontiernet.net. The Red Tent by Anna Diamant will be the first book.

Thank you to Larry Sidwell for hosting the MVUUF New Year’s Day Potuck at Sidwell Friends’ Bed and Breakfast.
Other UU Matters

Considering MVUUF membership? Please ask a Board of Trustees member for a prospective member folder, or a membership form.

Library Matters

The MVUUF Library catalogue is available online at www.librarything.com/catalog/MVUUF. Recent donations to the library have been added to the LibraryThing catalog and are now available on the shelves at the fellowship.

Newspaper Announcement Guidelines

Submissions for the Friday "church news" sections of both the Sentinel and the Register-News are sent on the Tuesday morning prior to the service or event. If you are leading a service, or planning a Fellowship event, please email your information to Gail at: vegaddict1@aol.com by (at the very latest) 8 a.m., on the prior Monday. A few sentences is fine. Many new attendees have told us that they found MVUUF through articles in the newspaper, so this is an important way to let people know what is happening.

Newsletter Guidelines

Please email submissions for UU Matters to marji.gibbs(at)gmail.com by Monday, February 23 for the March issue. Please email March dates for the website as soon as available. If you are leading a service or speaking in a service, please send title, date, and description of your service/sermon. If you are coordinating a special meeting or event that is open to the public, please submit the date and description of the event.

UU Matters is an opportunity for you to share your personal work relating to Unitarian Universalism, to the MVUUF congregation, or to liberal religious thought in general. Please consider sharing your photography, poems, short stories, “deep thoughts,” favorite quotes, etc.
Treasury Matters

Financial contributions may be made in the round bowl on the back table in the Fellowship Hall. If you would like to mail a contribution, please mail to: MVUUF, 1600 Isabella, Mt. Vernon, IL, 62864. Please make checks payable to MVUUF. If you would like your offering to be used for a specific purpose, please clearly mark that purpose on the memo line on your check or on the envelope in which you place your offering.
